DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Lakeside Farm Sold—$1,000 Left to East Killingly Church—Rev. R. S. Cushman to Preach on Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bailey of Southbridge are guests of Mr. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Bailey, of the West Side.

Rev. Thomas Felton will speak at the Advent chapel Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. "Faith" will be his subject.

George Crowell of Berlin, N. H., formerly of Danielson, is visiting with friends in town.

Benjamin Thomas of Stamford has been spending a few days with Danielson friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, married at Southbridge this week, are with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burton of Mechanic street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chase are entertaining Miss Carrie McNeill of Norwich.

Henry Dubuc has gone to New Bedford, where he will be employed.

Miss Nellie Fournier, Miss Leah Besette and Mrs. G. Lavallee won the honors Thursday evening at the first meeting of the season of the 1910 whist club.

Lafayette Club's Officers.

Following are the newly elected officers of the Lafayette club: President, W. Polier; vice president, F. LaJennette; secretary, Henry Wolsard; corresponding secretary, D. E. Jetter; treasurer, Telephone Wolsard; auditors, Albert Malhot, Walter Dupuis.

Discussed Woman Suffrage.

Why Should Women Vote? was the question discussed at the meeting of Hartford at a meeting in the Congregational chapel at Brooklyn Friday afternoon of the Woman's Christian Temperance union of the village.

Forty Prisoners at Jail.

There are only forty prisoners at the county jail in Brooklyn, an unusually small number. The range in the number of inmates has varied in the past ten years from thirty-one to four years ago to the largest number ever at the institution—119. The minimum record of 21 was made four years ago and about this time. It is matter of comment that the traveling characters of disrepute from which class the largest number of jail prisoners are propagated are not as numerous in this section at the present time as in past years. It is said that many of them have been sent to the western country where living is easier at present than in the east.

Sale of Farm to Long Island Man.

James Keach, manager of the store of the Boston Dry Goods company, has sold his Lakeside farm at Brooklyn to a Riverhead, L. I. man. Herbert C. Keach, son of Mr. Keach, who has had the farm in charge, is to make his home in Riverhead after December 1, at about which time the new owner is to take possession of the property.

Death has followed the injury that was sustained by the late owner of the farm.

a horse owned by Oliver Downs of the town of Brooklyn received when after becoming frightened at the cars while standing on Railroad square about two weeks ago, it drove the end of a shaft of the vehicle into its shoulder, struggling to escape. The injury received was a very peculiar one, but it was at first believed that the animal would recover from the effects.

Request to Church.

It is announced that Mrs. Marietta Paine, lately deceased, has bequeathed the sum of $1,000 to the Free Baptist church of East Killingly. Mrs. Paine was the mother of James M. Paine, who died recently, and for a time made her home with him in Danielson.

Evangelistic Day for Columbus.

An evangelistic service in observance of Columbus day is to be held at the Methodist church, commencing at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. "A Final Judgment" will be the theme for Rev. R. S. Cushman's sermon, which will be based on the story of the life of the great discoverer.

Railroad Detectives About.

Railroad secret service men have been in Danielson and other towns in this vicinity during the past few days for the purpose of making an investigation of losses that have occurred from cars in transit.

Husking Bee Tonight.

There is to be an old-fashioned New England husking bee at the home of George S. Stapp, 100 East Killingly street, (Saturday) evening. The members of the Free Baptist church in that village are interested in the affair and will assist at it in numbers.

CAUCUSES ON FRIDAY.

Brooklyn Republicans Nominate William Clewley for Representative—Killingly's Choice Keach and Rich.

The republicans of Brooklyn at their caucus held in the Town hall Friday evening, nominated William Clewley for representative and Irving Chapman for judge of probate. There were no nominating speeches, selection being by informal ballot. It was on the second ballot that Mr. Clewley's nomination was obtained, he receiving 33 votes against 13 for Dewitt Park. There were a few scattered votes for other candidates. Mr. Clewley's nomination was made unanimous. It is understood that he favors Morgan G. Bulkeley for United States senator.

The justices of the peace nominated were William Thurston, T. B. Pond, Clarence Cundall, William Touchette and Frederick Page. Rev. George T. Genung, D.D., was chairman of the meeting.

Keach and Rich at Killingly.

Edwin H. Keach and Arnold P. Rich were nominated for representatives by the republicans of Killingly at the party caucus held in the town hall at Lakeside Friday afternoon. Mr. S. S. Russell was chairman of the meeting and Job S. Seamus clerk. The nomination of Mr. Rich was made by acclamation, there being no other candidate from the Third district, but Mr. Keach, representing the First voting district, was nominated.

To Live in Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, who were married in Southbridge this week, have been visiting Putnam relatives. They are to be at home in Bridgeport, where Mr. Wilson is employed, after December 1.

Change in Trolley Schedule.

A change in the trolley timetable affecting Putnam will become effective Monday morning, when they first northbound car will leave the city center seven minutes earlier than usual, at 6 a. m. instead of at 6:07 a. m., as at present.

Miss Alice Cunningham is to give a report of the institute held at Putnam camp ground last summer at the Epworth league service at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Had to Take Out Licenses.

Ten representatives of a big soap manufacturing house took out licenses to do business in Putnam Friday afternoon. The form of licensing itinerant workers which was adopted two years ago, is being rigidly enforced by the police, and earns the city a surprising amount of revenue.

A number of the members of Quinebaug lodge, P. and A. M., have decided to go to Woodstock this (Saturday) evening to witness the conferring of the 32nd degree on candidates there. It is expected that state officers will be present.

Walter S. Carpenter, Frederick J. Dunster, and A. M., have taken out licenses for the town of Putnam, have filed the usual notice relative to taxpayers making returns.

LIBRARY APPROPRIATION

Considered Too Small to Permit Efficient Work.

Newton A. Ballard, treasurer of the public library committee, makes it clear that it is to be a difficult proposition to maintain the library under present conditions with only the reduced appropriation of $1,000 available from the town. Last year this appropriation amounted to $1,200. Last year also $1,325.92 was expended. With the income from the Green fund, which will be about $200, and the sum received from fines, the total revenue for the library for this year is estimated at about $1,100 by Treasurer Ballard. The committee will be forced to make a heavy year as last, if new books are bought; therefore a deficit is not an improbable result with only the reduced amount of money with which to work.

Rally Day Exercises at Baptist Church.

Following is the programme of the rally day exercises to be held at the Baptist church Sunday at 12 o'clock. In place of the usual Bible school exercises:

The Song of the New Crusade, school; prayer, Rev. B. F. Benoit; chorus, Joy at the Harvest Time, by school; exercise, Welcome, Mrs. Constance; reading, The Harvest Time, by school; recitation, I'll Be There, Ralph Pierce; boy's chorus, Scatter Sunshine, Mrs. Farnsworth; exercise and song, primary class; recitation, Bearing Burdens, Inez Brower; chorus, Forward, Forward All, school; reading, Harvest, Mildred Bard; recitation, Why I Am Here, Hazel Converse; song, We're Growing Up, for Jesus, secret society; men's chorus; remarks by pastor; chorus, Who Will Tell for Jesus? chorus; dedication.

Socialist Candidate to Speak.

Robert Hunter, socialist candidate for election as governor of Connecticut, will speak at the Epworth league service at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURE

Attended by Large Number—Miss Ida Bailey Instructs and Interests Hearers.

Putnam ladies, as well as others from the surrounding towns, enjoyed a domestic science lecture delivered by Miss Ida Bailey of Worcester in the Congregational gymnasium Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miss S. Elizabeth Clarke, president of the Ladies' Social Circle, introduced Miss Bailey. This clever young woman then gave a most interesting and fascinating lecture demonstrating the up to date methods of cooking, whereby housekeeping is made easy. She cooked and served something different for supper. Miss Bailey was assisted by Miss Amelia of Worcester and four young ladies of this city. Misses Marjorie Burgess, Gertrude Warner, Harriet Corbin and Miss Page, gowned in white. The hall was attractively decorated in autumn leaves and fall flowers. Miss Bailey served tomato soup, crackers, Swedish omelette with bacon, oysters, luncheon rolls, Chatham salad, harvest cups, fig gold cake, tea.

Miss Bailey is director of the domestic science department of the Young Women's Christian association in Worcester, and is assisted by Miss Annie. She distributed receipts of all dishes cooked and served.

Speed, Not Exercise.

Walking, we are told, is a good exercise—better than riding in an automobile. The trouble is that a great many of us are not looking for exercise.

Human Nature.

When a man is applauded for doing or saying a smart thing he tries so hard to score again that he becomes a nuisance.—Aitchison Globe.

Fame Before Virtue.

The thirst for fame is greater than the thirst for virtue; for who would embrace virtue itself if you take away its rewards?—Juvenal.

Said Uncle Silas:

"There's this difference between a thirsty dog and a thirsty man—a thirsty dog knows when he has had enough."

Bad Enough.

The men have enough other foolish notions without caring much for cut glass dishes.—Aitchison (Kan.) Globe.

Adversity and Prosperity.
